Name: Gina Miceli      Hometown: Ithaca, N.Y.      Age: 28

College: I attended The University of Scranton and received a bachelor's degree in Communication and a degree in Criminal Justice.

Company: Radisson Lackawanna Station Hotel

Job description: Sales Manager

Hobbies: Traveling to new places, spending a day at the park, meeting new people from all walks of life and quality time with my family, friends and colleagues.

Why you like living and working in the 570: I am constantly reminded of the natural beauty and endless views from every direction I turn. The city of Scranton is a safe, educational and entertaining place to live. Our community is friendly, accepting and caring and most importantly offers opportunities for professional growth and personal experiences. Who wouldn't want to live in a city nicknamed the "Electric City!"

How can young professionals help improve the area?: The most important thing to remember is that you are here to be heard. Speak from roof tops, be yourself and don't be afraid to step outside of the box. Scranton is home to all of us and we need to take pride in our community. Get involved and stay involved!
